(Master in Religious Education) from Grand Rapids Baptist Seminary. He has been active both as a teacher and administrator in Christian Schools.

Jenny Bumcrot is co-founder of Basic Skills Assessment and Educational Services. She attended Cerritos College and has worked in special education programs in public schools both in California and Oregon. She has home schooled her three children, is a certified test examiner and has worked as a tutor at Basic Skills.

Jo Edwards holds both BA and MS Ed. degrees in special education and is a licensed teacher. In addition to home schooling her children through high school, she has taught in public school and eleven years at a small Christian school. Her specialty is teaching in a multi-age classroom that includes students with special needs.

Natalie Trust received her B.S. in Human Development and Family Studies from Warner Pacific College. She enjoyed a variety of internships during her college career, including Girl Scouts Beyond Bars, The Early Learning Center, and The Dougy Center. She has taught various levels of English, Literature, and Drama courses over the past five years. She is passionate about instilling a love for learning in her students and encourages them to continually challenge themselves.

Ann Light Anne received a BA in Romance Languages (Spanish, Italian, and French) from the University of Oregon in 1980. She spent 3 months in Costa Rica as an exchange student and 6 months at the University of Guanajuato, Mexico in college. As a veteran homeschool mom, teaching her 4 children at home the past 21 years, she has taught Spanish to her own children as well as other homeschooled students using a curriculum she personally developed. The curriculum not only teaches Spanish basics but also focuses on the real reason to learn another language; being able to share the good news of the gospel to a lost world around us.

Classes will meet Monday-Thursday 9:00-3:00.
